1. Polish Ocean Lines have instructed their agents [] that the greatest possible care must now be taken in labelling and packaging goods being sent to Gdynia as they themselves are unable to trace goods after discharge. 25X1
2. The manager of the Polish firm of Hartwig [] was to devise means of getting goods in Poland moving in a more satisfactory manner. 25X1
3. The inefficiency in the port of Gdynia, which is indicated by the above statement, is probably due to congestion caused by the sudden increase in cargoes arriving in Gdynia [] coupled with the continuing strain of shipments arriving for transshipment in Gdynia for China. 25X1
